F-M Area Coming Out Day Awards

National Coming Out Day is an opportunity for lesbian, gay, bisexual and transgender people and allies to celebrate each other and continue to break-down barriers that keep people from being able to fully participate in their communities.

The F-M Area Coming Out Day Awards are a way to recognize individuals and organizations in the greater Fargo-Moorhead and Red River Valley area that have made an impact in the greater community. The Pride Collective & Community Center wants to make sure that individuals and organizations are recognized and appreciated for the work they do to make their community a better place for all people. Please take the time to recognize the impact that is being made. A committee comprised of one-Board member and other volunteers will make the final selection(s) for each category.

Awards will be handed out at the free community-wide event, The Laramie Project: 10 Years Later on Monday, October 12, 2009 at the Fargo Theatre. All nominees will be notified and encouraged to attend to be recognized.
